

IDIAP Jordi Gol Institute for Research in Primary Care

Job Announcement

IDIAP Jordi Gol is looking for a person with a Bachelor's degree or First -cycle degree (diplomatura) for its European Projects Support Office (EPSO)

Description of the job:

A professional with dominance of the English language and knowledge of European research projects and award calls to coordinate the support platform of IDIAP Jordi Gol's EPSO.

Function:

- Coordination of EPSO
- Dissemination of the European award calls and other opportunities to IDIAP Jordi Gol's researchers
- Search for participation opportunities in European consortia and networks
- Advise and give direct support to European project leaders
- Improve IDIAP Jordi Gol's participation and leadership in European projects
- Serve as liaison between IDIAP Jordi Gol and various European agencies that provide financing for research

Minimum requirements:

- Experience in European projects
- English as native language or with an excellent level of oral and written English
- Experience and knowledge of research or epidemiology
- Knowledge of primary care and the Spanish healthcare system
- Great communication and leadership skills
- Availability to travel in Europe and other countries
- Experience in project coordination or management

Contract:

Temporary contract. Possibility of renewing and subsequent stabilization.

Dedication: Full time, 40 hours/week

Work place: IDIAP Jordi Gol (Barcelona)

Start: May 2010

Submitting application:

Those who are interested should send their curriculum vitae, along with a cover letter, telephone number and possible references, to IDIAP Jordi Gol before April 6.

Send applications to: Laia Alvaro, lalvaro@idiapjgol.org

IDIAP Jordi Gol, Gran Via de les Corts Catalanes, 587, àtic, 08007 Barcelona.